Intuitive healing is a broad term that can apply to any act or mode of healing that uses intuition to help guide the healing process or treatment. While the term is usually used for energy healers and other holistic healers, I think it can be applied just as accurately to many conventional medical practitioners.

Usually, there will be an effort to make all powers equally important — the elemental powers used in such settings usually employ some form of Elemental Rock-Paper-Scissors, in order to avoid having any particular power being clearly more powerful than the others (unless there's an Infinity +1 Element involved). If some are more important/intrinsically more potent, then the Inverse Law ...
